

ARMOND E. WEBB

Lehi Centennial History 1850-1950

Armond E. Webb, son of Eugene and Ann Smith Webb, was born February 16, 1906, in Lehi, Utah, and was baptized a member of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latterday Saints on March 14, 1914. He attended the Lehi elementary schools and graduated from the Lehi High School in 1924.

He served as a missionary in the Southern States Mission from 1925 to 1928, where he presided over the Georgia District for the last five months of his mission.

He was employed in April, 1928, by the People's Co-op. He served as manager of this company at Lehi from 1931 to 1934. He was transferred to Payson as manager of the Payson Co-op. He worked in this position until 1936 when he returned to Lehi and again became manager of the People's Co-op. In 1938 he went into business for himself with partners, L.A. Brown and Lee Price. This partnership continued for seven years. The partnership was dissolved September 1, 1945, and he became sole owner of the People's Store.

In July of 1928, he became the first Stake Sunday School Superintendent for the newly formed Lehi Stake. He served until March of 1934. He was Scoutmaster in the Second Ward of Payson and also became a member of the Mutual Improvement Association Presidency of the same ward. Upon his return to Lehi he served as Ward Sunday School Superintendent of the Lehi Second Ward.

In 1942 he was appointed to the Lehi Stake High Council, in which capacity he served until February 16, 1947, when he became a member of the Lehi Stake Presidency.

He has served his community in other than religious capacities, serving on numerous committees for various mayors of Lehi. He is a member of the Lehi Lions Club and served that club as president in the years 1946-1947. He is also a member of the Lehi Civic Improvement Association and the Lehi Better Business Association.